PHILOSOPHY

The Louis De Poortere philosophy is based on a simple concept: we aim to be more than just a manufacturer of carpets. In branching into home decorating, we have had to increase our creativity to meet your aesthetic requirements, and this has stimulated us to transform the generic into magic. Because people are increasingly seeking beauty, elegance, value and comfort for their homes, our designers and technicians have created entire collections that are modern and accessible, and designed to bring you the utmost pleasure. Because your demands are becoming increasingly specific and your tastes more assured, we have developed bold concepts that are simple and attractive and will enable you to easily reach ultimate sophistication in your floorcovering. At Louis De Poortere you will find rugs, carpets, stair runners and even border rugs, which you can freely mix and match to make your decorating"home sweet home" experience a pleasure. Our passion is to offer you this pleasure.

DORA & GRAFFITO

Become a collector!
With the new Gallery Collection, art comes to your home with colorful and resolutely modern works.
Whether you hang them on the wall like a painting, or place them on the floor as designer rugs, these unique creations will give your interior a touch of exclusivity and modernity.

Graffito, could have arisen from an urban art session between Raoul Dufy, Henri Matisse and Keith Haring!
Dora pays homage to the most famous of the Pablos through an original creation where the genius of the master is reinterpreted in its simplicity.

STREAKS

Another bestselling design, inspired by modern art.
Our Atlantic Collection gets some new colours in the blues and reds.

The sandy shores of New Jersey and Long Island are whipped by the winter gales, designing ripples and streaks in the sand as if they were abstract paintings.

Over a century of skill and craftsmanship is woven ino every rug we produce. Woven on Jacquard looms with cotton chenille yarns, each beautiful rug has multiple layers of texture, distressed areas and intricate stitching detail to give a true 'vintage' look.

An old rug showing a familiar, yet almost forgotten pattern...
A large central medallion, rosette shaped with a stair patterned perimeter.
Palmettes in which the shape of a turtle seems to be suggested.
Boughs, leaved twigs, stalks and flowers, a Heriz, distressed by age and with its origin in Azeri Persia.

HADSCHLU

The legendary 782-hadschlu from Louis De Poortere is re-edited in its flat weave, distressed version. Sometimes called "The Notary Rug", our Hadschlu has the particularity that it blends into a classic notary study, as elegantly as in a sleek, minimalist yuppie interior. It just adds that classy touch that says you know what you want.

The figure is the freezing point 0°Celsius and refers to the chilling winds of the New York late fall and winter period, when wind chills and even polar vortexes bring frost, snow and ice to the city. The pattern evokes the marks left by the skaters on the ice of the Wollman rink.

Madison Avenue runs between Park Avenue and Fifth Avenue in Manhattan.
Since the twenties, it has been the center of the american advertising industry.
The Mad-ison men were the golden boys of the sixties, who "dreamed up" the images of the iconic brands of the USA.
Inspired by this theme, Louis De Poortere has created a new collection of 'vinta-ge sixties' rugs. A mix of straight and broken lines, of dull and shining yarns, of smooth and ragged pencil strokes.

Here we find an indication of pain and disorder, of the rifts and big changes like women's lib, vietnam, the black panthers and may'68 but also of the creative energy of action painting in the late sixties.
